REPORT OF THE TREASURER

MEREDITH P. CRAWFORD

*George Washington University
Human Resources Research Office*

THE report of the Treasurer at the Annual Meeting is always concerned with three years' Association operation: the year passed for which all accounts have been examined and audited; the current year; and the next year, the Budget for which the Council of Representatives adopted in Chicago on September 2, 1960. Following this pattern I will review, in summary fashion, the years 1959, 1960, and 1961. You recall our fiscal year coincides with the calendar year. Also, I will comment on certain trends in our financial operation.

The report of our auditors, Ernst & Ernst, showed our expenditures totaled $756,772.68. Last
